Officers were dispatched to the area just North of Kroger's regarding a subject that ran from a traffic stop that was initiated by the Border Patrol. Dispatch advised the subject was a male wearing a black coat with yellow letters and blue jeans. No other information was available at the time.

Upon arrival, officers began checking the area and it was relayed to officers that the subject may have double backed south towards Kroger. While officers were out, citizens advised they may have seen the subject south of Kroger walking in to a woods. A short time later, a citizen advised the saw a subject matching the description walking along the rail road tracks in Sandusky. These areas were checked to no avail.
